Master Cineas dedicato alla formazione dei risk manager ambientali

Le aziende di tutti i settori sono esposte ai rischi di danno ambientale: dall'oil&gas, al chimico farmaceutico, ai trasporti, ma anche l'alimentare e il tessile. Specializzarsi in questo ambito significa quindi avere ampie possibilità d'impiego. Cineas organizza l'ottava edizione del corso in Environmental risk management.

Disponibili agevolazioni e borse di studio per chi si iscrive entro gennaio 2015.

L'offerta Cineas per la formazione del risk manager ambientale è concepita per professionisti con esperienza in: imprese industriali, enti pubblici, società di bonifica, ambito legale, mondo peritale, broker e società di consulenza.

Si tratta di un corso intensivo di 80 ore, concentrate nell'intera giornata del venerdì, a partire dal 13 marzo fino a giugno 2015. Le lezioni si svolgeranno presso la sede del Politecnico di Milano, in Piazza Leonardo Da Vinci, 32 a Milano.

Il master ha un costo di 2.000 euro (esente da IVA) e le iscrizioni scadono il 27 febbraio 2015. Per chi si iscrive entro il 27 gennaio è previsto uno sconto del 10% sulla quota di partecipazione. Sono, inoltre, disponibili borse di studio a copertura parziale dei costi; chi desidera partecipare all'assegnazione delle borse deve farne specifica richiesta entro il 6 febbraio.
