

2nd Virtual Symposium for Young Organic Chemists

The '2nd Virtual Symposium for Young Organic Chemists' promoted by the Organic Division of Società Chimica Italiana, is aimed to give young chemists the possibility of presenting their research projects and sharing ideas in a dynamic and stimulating environment.

The symposium is designed to host only short communications of 15 minutes each provided by talented young researchers (under 35) working in the field of organic chemistry and affiliated to Italian and European academic institutions.

Sessions can be attended on Facebook (@SCIChimicaOrganica) and via Zoom (bit.ly/2ndvisyochemAM and bit.ly/2ndvisyochemPM).
