

VIRTUAL SYMPOSIUM ON CHEMICAL THEORY AND COMPUTATION (VS-CTC)

ORGANIZED BY THE THEORETICAL AND COMPUTATIONAL CHEMISTRY
DIVISION (DCTC) OF THE ITALIAN CHEMISTRY SOCIETY

MONDAY DECEMBER 21 | 2.30 PM CET | ON ZOOM

This 1-day symposium is primarily addressed to young students with interest in theoretical and computational chemistry.

The four winners of the DCTC contest "Premio Miglior Lavoro Scientifico 2020" will have the opportunity to present their work:

Dott.ssa Fortuna Ponte (Università della Calabria, Italy)

Dott. Jacopo Fregoni (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, Spain)

Dott.ssa Silvia Alessandrini (Scuola Normale Superiore, Italy)

Dott. Francesco Di Maiolo (Goethe-Universität, Germany)

Graduate students and postdocs are invited to submit an abstract for contributing with a virtual poster in the form of a flash talk (3 slides / 5 minutes). An abstract must be submitted via email to vsdctc@gmail.com before December 13th. An abstract template can be found at the link

Moreover, a video contest call is opened to award the communication and dissemination skills of young researchers who carry out their research activity in the field of theoretical and computational chemistry. The finalist videos will be voted during the event to select the winner. The deadline is on December 13th, more info can be found at the link

As concluding event we are pleased to announce the seminar entitled:

"Computational Microscopy of SARS-CoV-2" of our Keynote speaker: Rommie E. Amaro, Ph.D.
(University of California, San Diego)

The registration is free of charge and requires an email to vsdctc@gmail.com before December 18th.
